OBITUARY

Bye and bye when the morning comes, when all the saints of God will be gathering home, we will tell the story of how we overcome and we will understand it better bye and bye.

Mother Sarah Frances Miller was born to the proud parents John and Nancy Miller on October 6, 1902 in Longview, Texas.

She attended the public schools in her community and received her literary education. She was reared in a Christian atmosphere and knew about the plans of salvation. She was saved and sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost under the pastorage of the late Elder James L. Langston, Sr., in Amarillo, Texas. She and Brother King G. Miller was married in 1918 and to this union was born one daughter. They moved to Richmond, California in early 1939, and lived there until her passing. Brother Miller preceeded her in death. She was a faithful member of the church and worked with several auxiliaries in the church at that time: the Mother's Board, the Sewing Circle, and the Prayer and Bible Band. She was a devoted saint, and loved her pastor, the late Bishop George W. McGlothen, and her church sisters and brothers. She was a loving wife to her late husband, a devoted mother to her daughter and loved her grand-children very much. She will be missed by her devoted family and the many saints and friends who knew and loved her dearly.

Her health became impaired several years ago, and she could not function in the church as she desired, but she never lost her courage and faith in her maker, for she knew in whom she believed.

On June 29, 1988 she expired in a local convalescent home in the City of Richmond . She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Reola Griffin, of Richmond. Three grand-children: Ms. Arline (Francine) Fingers, Diana (Griffin) Stephfano, and Aubrey J. Kimble. Two great-grand-children, and three great-great-grand-children, a host of devoted nephews, nieces, cousins, that reside in California and Texas; the Williams, the Johnsons, the Millers and the Richmonds and many lovely saints and friends.

Dedicated to the Bereaved Family
What Joy that Awaits Me

Walking with Jesus is such a pleasure
Praising His name is such a thrill
Trusting in His precious promises
Trusting and striving to do his will

Let me daily feel thy presence
Safely guide me every day
When the enemy tries to hinder
Your tender voice I will obey

When the journey here is finished
When life here on earth is o'er
Oh! What joy awaits me in glory
I'll dwell with Jesus for evermore

There I will know no pain nor sorrow
I will be in my home prepared for me
Where the saints will all be joining
Singing and shouting the victory
